WEBSITE PREVIEW · NOVEMBER 2026

A new website for Eden Landscapes

Built around your "Gardens of distinction", the Endsleigh story, and a small team that's there all year round.

Try it yourself (build a garden):

Prepared for James by Chris at Kattch.
A private preview. It isn't live, and it isn't on Google.

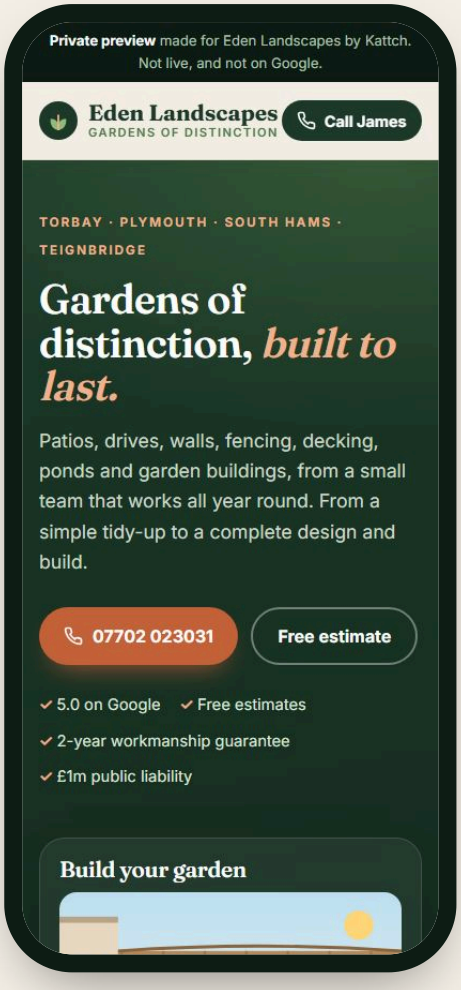

BEFORE AND AFTER, ON A PHONE

Most people look for a landscaper on their phone

The preview

What a visitor sees first

- Today: the page is wider than the phone, so the text runs off the right-hand edge.
- Today: light green text on a green background is hard to read, and the numbers can't be tapped.
- Preview: fits any phone, with "Call James" at the top and call buttons that stay on screen.
- Preview: what you do, your 5.0 Google rating and your guarantee, all on the first screen.

The preview

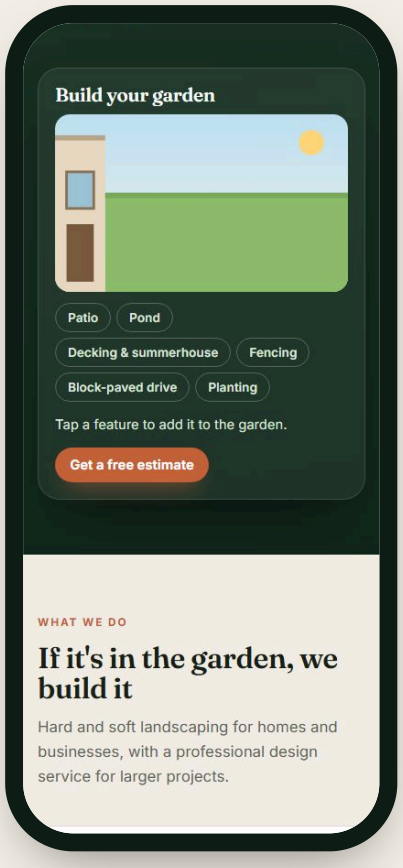

Today, the site is built with Serif WebPlus 8, a program from the mid-2000s. It lists a fax number and an aol.com email address, and some pages show garbled symbols where quote marks should be. The preview is modern, secure and easy to read.

THE STANDOUT FEATURE

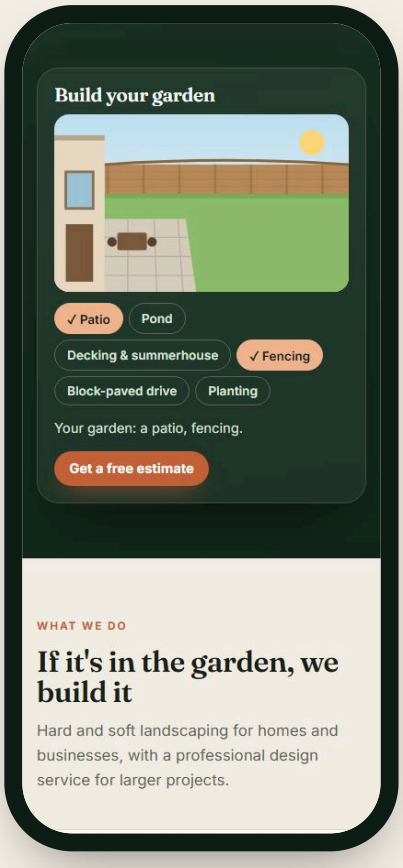

"Build your garden"

Visitors tap Patio, Pond, Decking, Fencing, Drive or Planting, and each one appears in the garden. Their choices are ticked in the estimate form automatically, so you know what they're thinking of before you call back.

THE THINKING BEHIND IT

Why we made these changes

1. Works on every phone

The current site was built before smartphones, so on a phone it's wider than the screen. The preview fits any size, and every number can be tapped to call.

2. Easy to read

Light green text on a green background is hard going, especially outdoors on a phone. The preview uses dark text on a light background, with clear headings.

3. Your story, front and centre

The Endsleigh Garden Centre story and "we don't disappear after the summer" are great reasons to choose you. They're tucked away on the About page today. The preview puts them on the front page.

4. Your guarantee, on show

Your two-year workmanship warranty and £1m insurance are on a page that isn't in the menu. The preview shows them on the front page, where they build trust.

5. Tidy details

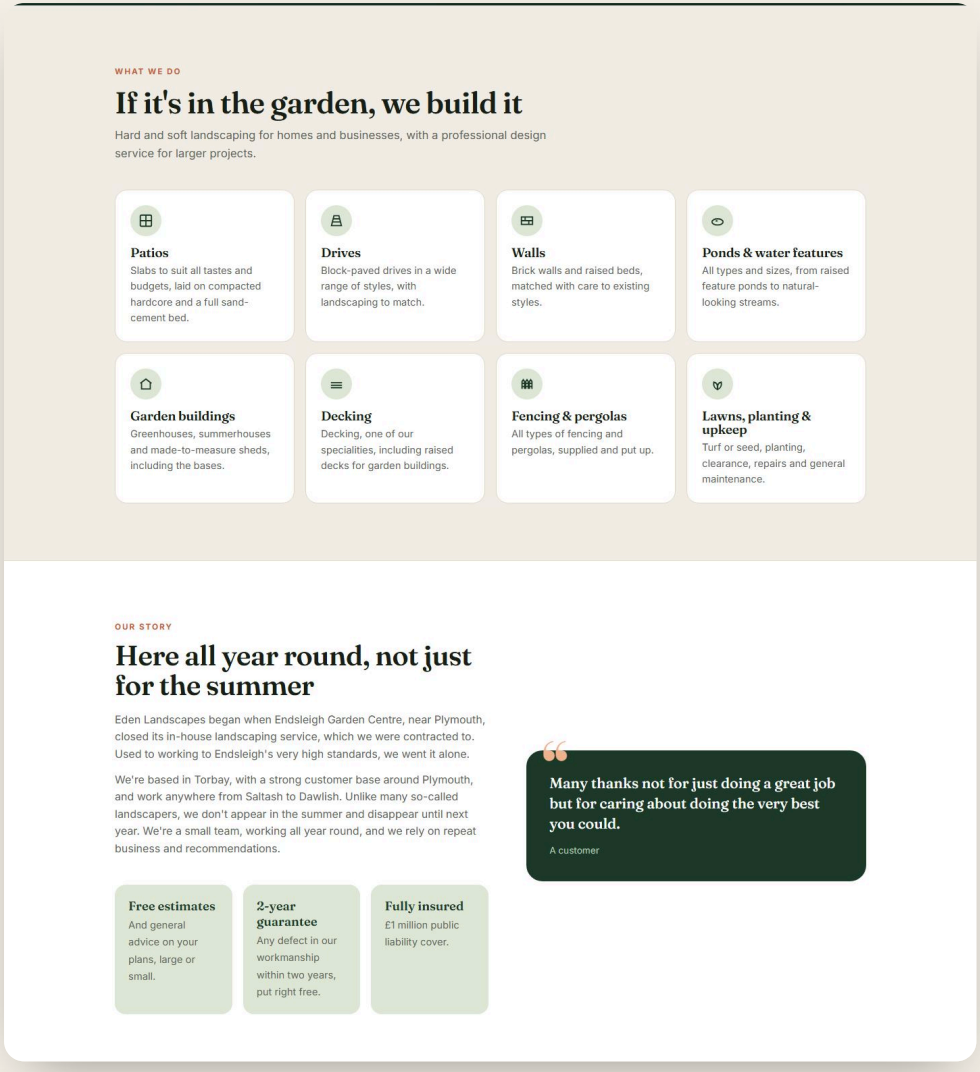

Quote marks show as garbled symbols ("ï¿½") on several pages, a photo covers one of your testimonials, and the site lists a fax number. Small things, but visitors notice them.

6. Enquiries that say what's wanted

The estimate form knows which features they picked, and has room for a photo of the garden, so you can price it up before you visit.

WHAT WE DO

If it's in the garden, we build it

Hard and soft landscaping for homes and businesses, with a professional design service for larger projects.

Patios
Slabs to suit all tastes and budgets, laid on compacted hardcore and a full sand-cement bed.

Drives
Block-paved drives in a wide range of styles, with landscaping to match.

Walls
Brick walls and raised beds, matched with care to existing styles.

Ponds & water features
All types and sizes, from raised feature ponds to natural-looking streams.

Garden buildings
Greenhouses, summerhouses and made-to-measure sheds, including the bases.

Decking
Decking, one of our specialities, including raised decks for garden buildings.

Fencing & pergolas
All types of fencing and pergolas, supplied and put up.

Lawns, planting & upkeep
Turf or seed, planting, clearance, repairs and general maintenance.

OUR STORY

Here all year round, not just for the summer

Eden Landscapes began when Endsleigh Garden Centre, near Plymouth, closed its in-house landscaping service, which we were contracted to. Used to working to Endsleigh's very high standards, we went it alone.

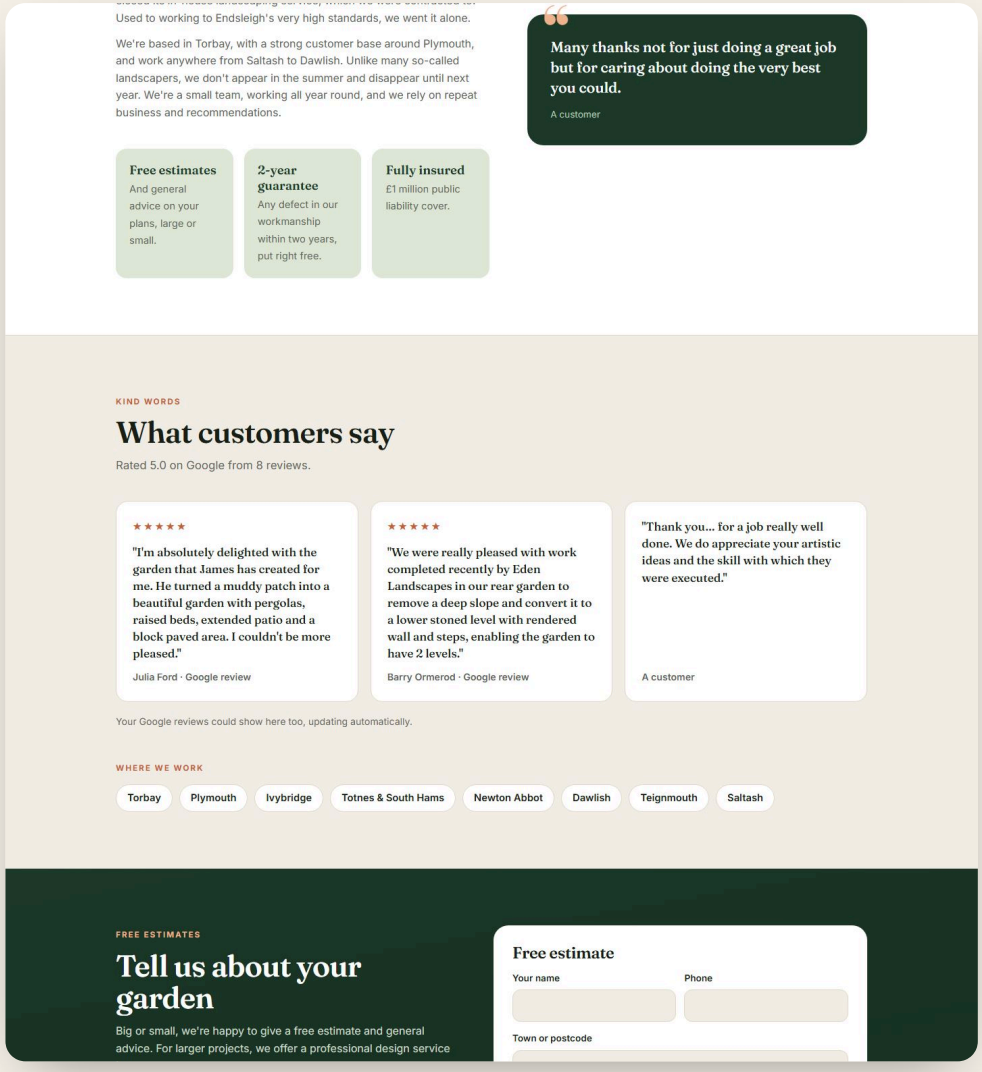

We're based in Torbay, with a strong customer base around Plymouth, and work anywhere from Saltash to Dawlish. Unlike many so-called landscapers, we don't appear in the summer and disappear until next year. We're a small team, working all year round, and we rely on repeat business and recommendations.

Free estimates
And general advice on your plans, large or small.

2-year guarantee
Any defect in our workmanship within two years, put right free.

Fully insured
£1 million public liability cover.

> Many thanks not for just doing a great job but for caring about doing the very best you could.

KIND WORDS

What customers say

Rated 5.0 on Google from 8 reviews.

★★★★★
"I'm absolutely delighted with the garden that James has created for me. He turned a muddy patch into a beautiful garden with pergolas, raised beds, extended patio and a block paved area. I couldn't be more pleased."
Julia Ford · Google review

★★★★★
"We were really pleased with work completed recently by Eden Landscapes in our rear garden to remove a deep slope and convert it to a lower stoned level with rendered wall and steps, enabling the garden to have 2 levels."
Barry Ormerod · Google review

"Thank you... for a job really well done. We do appreciate your artistic ideas and the skill with which they were executed."

ABOUT KATTCH

Kattch helps local trade and home-service businesses catch the work that slips through the net: missed calls that never get called back, quotes that go quiet, and old enquiries nobody followed up.

We look at how enquiries come in and get handled, find where jobs are being lost, then set up simple systems to fix it. A website that works well on phones is often the first part of that.
